When you first received this invitation you were tentatively scheduled to speak to the Junior Achievement Awards banquet on 14 March and we suggested that you also include on your agenda for that trip a speaking engagement at Washington University in St. Louis. (See memo opposite.) Since your March travel plans have changed, you will no longer be able to speak at the Junior Achievement banquet.

You will be in St. Louis, however, on April 29th for the Law Day, and I recommend that you include a speaking engagement at the University in your schedule. If you agree, attached is a letter of acceptance for your signature.

Dear Ms. Brown:

Thank you for your kind invitation to address the Washington University students in St. Louis. I am delighted to accept your offer and will look forward to meeting with the students. As you know, I have been involved with the University for many years and therefore it will be of particular interest to me to meet with your group. At this time I plan to be in St. Louis on April 29th and would be available to speak to the students sometime during the day. A member of my Public Affairs staff will be in touch with you concerning the arrangements.

I am glad to hear that the Minority Coordinators' Seminar provided you with helpful information.

Sincerely yours,

RE: Speaking Invitation
Washington University in St. Louis
St. Louis, MO
Convenient Date

Ms. Alfreda Brown, Career Counselor for Washington University in St. Louis, has invited you to speak to the University students during one of your visits to St. Louis. The proposed format is 20 minutes of remarks followed by 10 minutes of questions and answers. You could expect an audience of 50 - 100 liberal art students. Unless we requested coverage, this would not be a media event except for the attendance of reporters from the University paper. The University staff is prepared to accommodate your schedule and tailor the attendance and format of the event at your request.

This is an opportunity to speak at a midwestern school, and I recommend that you accept the invitation. Since you have tentatively accepted several speaking engagements in St. Louis for the month of March, you may wish to include speaking to these students at that time. If you agree, I have attached a letter of acceptance for your signature.

Dear Judge Webster:

I would like to thank you and your staff for sponsoring the Minority Coordinators' Seminar and for inviting me to participate in it. The seminar provided me information that will be very helpful to our students. As with the FBI, I am very confident that under your leadership the CIA will also soon be able to report a substantial increase in minority recruits.

I have shared with the Career Center staff your offer to speak with our students during one of your visits to St. Louis. Needless to say, we welcome this opportunity and will be pleased to arrange such a meeting at your convenience.

Thank you again for your generosity and interest in the career development of our students.

Sincerely,

Alfreda Brown
